

Association of lecturers and career advisors

Organization Type

Other

Organization Size

1-10

Country

Slovakia

Areas of Activities

Service sector

Seller

Education Services

Association of lecturers and career advisors is non-profit organisation (established in 2012), which represents the interests of lecturers and career advisors and through its activities contributes to the increase of their professional and social status.

ALKP' services:

*offers & hold the unlimited portfolio of workshops, trainings and conferences aiming at providing up-to-date information on the new trends in life-long education (e.g. Presentation and communication skills, Social competences of lecturer, Project management, Manager's key competences, GDPR, Course of Silence, Company culture, Effective conflict solving, Time management, Communication and assertiveness, Success, Mind maps etc).

*provides three courses "Lector", "Manager of further education" and "Career advisory", which are accredited by Ministry of Education of SR *conducts evaluation of competence in partial qualifications "Lector" and performs certification of lecturers in line with the Act no. 568/2009 on Lifelong Learning.